

CHAPTER 383.

An act in relation to roads and cartways.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact :

SECTION 1. That any person who shall obstruct any road or cartway ordered to be laid off and established according to the provisions of Battle's Revisal, chapter one hundred and four (104), shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished by fine or imprisonment, or both, at the discretion of the court.

Misdemeanor to obstruct road, etc.

SEC. 2. That any person who shall hinder or in any manner interfere with the making of any road or cartway laid off according to the provisions of Battle's Revisal, chapter one hundred and four (104), shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished by fine or imprisonment, or both, at the discretion of the court.

Misdemeanor to interfere with construction of road, etc.

SEC. 3. That this act shall take effect from and after its ratification.

In the general assembly read three times, and ratified this the 12th day of March, A. D. 1883.

CHAPTER 384.

An act to protect the rice planters of Eagle's Island, in Brauswick county.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact :

SECTION 1. That it shall not be lawful for any person to keep hogs or cattle running at large on Eagle's Island; and any person offending against the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction before a justice of the peace, shall be fined not more than fifty dollars, or imprisoned for one month.

Misdemeanor to keep hogs or cattle running at large on Eagle's Island.